

By clicking “Upgrade and Pay” below, you are agreeing to the Materialize Terms and Conditions available at <https://materialize.com/terms-and-conditions> (the “Materialize Terms and Conditions”) and the additional On Demand Terms set forth herein.

These terms shall commence on the date you click “Upgrade and Pay” below and shall remain in effect for an initial term of thirty (30) days (“First Month”), and thereafter continue for successive, automatically renewing terms of one (1) calendar month each, until terminated as set forth herein or in the Materialize Terms and Conditions.

Customer hereby agrees to purchase Service consumption on an On Demand basis, as further described on Materialize’s Service Consumption Table located at <https://materialize.com/s/pricing> (the “Service Consumption Table”). Customer’s Fees for use of the Services during the First Month shall be due and payable by Customer via the credit card or debit card submitted by Customer when you click “Upgrade and Pay” below (or otherwise as such credit card or debit card is updated in the future via the Services), at the rates set forth on our Service Consumption Table. Materialize charges its customers via such designated credit card or debit card for Service consumption on the first calendar day of the month following the month in which such Service consumption occurred. Customer acknowledges and agrees that as long as it continues to use the Services after the First Month, Materialize may continue to charge Customer’s credit card or debit card for, and Customer is responsible for, Fees for such use of the Services, at Materialize’s then-current standard On Demand prices for such Services, on a recurring monthly basis in arrears without further authorization from you, until either (a) Customer enters into a superseding Order Form with Materialize for the purchase of such Services, and such Order Form becomes effective, or (b) Customer terminates these On Demand Terms by written notice by emailing Materialize at cancellations@materialize.com, with such termination becoming effective one business day following Materialize’s receipt of such notice, and ceases use of the Services. Materialize will charge Customer’s designated credit card or debit card on the effective date of termination. Customer further acknowledges that Materialize may change its standard On Demand prices and/or credit consumption rates, from time to time in its sole discretion, though it will provide at least thirty (30) days’ advance notice of any such changes. Customer’s use of the Services following any On Demand price and/or credit consumption rate changes by Materialize shall be deemed acceptance by Customer of such changes.
