On Demand Network Terms. As an On-Demand customer entering into an Order Form during Materialize's Early Access period, during the Subscription Term only, Materialize may (but is not obligated to), in its sole discretion, waive Customer's Fee for Network Egress of less than 1 terabyte for all or part of any monthly period. Customer acknowledges and agrees that it is responsible for, and shall pay, in accordance with this Service Consumption Table and the Materialize Terms and Conditions, among other Fees set forth herein: (a) for all monthly periods in which Materialize has elected to grant the waiver described in the foregoing sentence, any Fee for Network Egress not waived by Materialize, at the rate set forth in the Service Consumption Table, and (b) for all monthly periods in which Materialize has not elected to grant such a waiver, a Fee on all Network Egress, at such rate. For the avoidance of doubt, Materialize reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to begin or resume charging Customer full monthly Fees for Network Egress at any time.

Capacity Network Terms. As a Capacity customer entering into an Order Form during Materialize's Early Access period, during the Subscription Term only, Materialize will waive Customer's Fee for Network Egress of less than 1 terabyte for all or part of any monthly period. Customer acknowledges and agrees that it is responsible for, and shall pay, in accordance with this Service Consumption Table and the Materialize Terms and Conditions, among other Fees set forth herein: (a) a Fee for Network Egress in excess of 1 terabyte for any monthly period(s) during the Subscription Term, at the rate set forth in the Service Consumption Table, and (b) a Fee on all Network Egress, at such rate, following the expiration of the Subscription Term, if, and for as long as, the Order Form remains in effect. Without limiting the foregoing, Materialize may (but is not obligated to), in its sole discretion, also waive any Fee for Network Egress that would otherwise be due pursuant to this Service Consumption Table, and reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to begin or resume charging Customer such Fee for Network Egress following any such waiver.
